

imaginasia

family program

Claymation: Young Artists Residency Application deadline: July 20, 2014

Monday, August 4–Friday, August 8, 10 am–3:30 pm
 Sackler sublevel 2
 Bring your own brown bag lunch. Art supplies provided.

Learn storyboarding, scene design, and claymation techniques from Erik Swanson, an instructor at the Corcoran School of Art + Design. Students create their own claymation videos featuring a heroic figure they discover in the galleries. Participants receive a DVD featuring all of the videos made in the class. i-Pads will be used to create the claymations and participants with i-Pads are encouraged to bring theirs. For ages 9–18. Registration fee: $100.00.

Name of artist: _____ Date of birth: _____

Name of parent or guardian: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Tel.: _____ E-mail: _____

Emergency contact name: _____

Relationship to student: _____ Mobile phone: _____

Student information

Have you done claymation before? _____ If so, what did you create? _____

If you have created claymations that are on youtube.com send us the link. If you have your claymations on a USB bring with you to share with the class.

Please submit the completed application either as an e-mail attachments to eckerst@si.edu or to the address listed below. A $100 registration fee payable by check to: ImaginAsia Family Program or cash must be paid the first day of class.

ImaginAsia Family Program
 Freer Gallery of Art and Arthur M. Sackler Gallery
 1050 Independence Avenue SW
 MRC 707, PO Box 37012
 Washington, DC 20013-7012

